Contents

Volume 34, Number 1, 2003

ARTICLES

1-21 Constructing Ethical Representations From the Teacher's Pedagogical Practice: A Case of Prolonged Reflection
Jukka Husu

23-33 Heraclitean Thinking: Implications for Philosophy of Education
Steve Mashalidis

35-49 Can There be Applied Philosophy Without Philosophy?
Jeff Noonan

51-61 Constructing Academic Community: Power, Relationality, Hospitality, and Conversation
John B. Bennett

63-87 Constructivist Science Teaching: Intellectual and Strategic Teaching Acts
Carol Scarff Seatter

89-104 Education as Economic Investment: Comments on Tuition Fee Policy
Fred Wilson

BOOK REVIEWS

105-107 When Learning Becomes Your Enemy: The Relationship Between Education, Spiritual Dissent and Economics, by Clive Erricker.
Reviewed by: Jack G. Priestley

Interchange Vol. 34/4, 483-487, 2003.
©Kluwer Academic Publishers. Printed in the Netherlands.

107-113 Gifted Bilingual Students: A Paradox?
by Esther Kogan.
Reviewed by: Sal Mendaglio

115-116 CONTRIBUTORS

Volume 34, Number 2 & 3, 2003

Understanding Literacy in its Historical Contexts: Past Approaches and Work in Progress

Ian Winchester, Editor
Guest Editors: Harvey J. Graff, Alison Mackinnon, and Bengt Sandin

117-122 Literacy, Religion, Gender, and Social History: A Socio-Cultural History for the 21st Century
Harvey J. Graff, Alison Mackinnon, Bengt Sandin, Ian Winchester

123-131 Introduction to Historical Studies of Literacy
Harvey J. Graff

133-135 About Egil Johansson
Kenneth Lockridge

137-151 Church Records – Part I:
From Orality to Reading Tradition
Church Records – Part II:
Baptism, Teaching to Observe, and the Demographic Data Base (DDB) – Opening Reflections
Egil Johansson
(Translation of Part I: Ian Winchester)

153-178 Literacy, Text, Practice, and Culture: Major Trends in the Umeå History of Education Research Group, 1972-2002
Daniel Lindmark

179-189 Are the Swedish Parish Examination Records a Unique Phenomenon?
Hanna Zipernovszky

191-195 The Role of Literacy in the Culture of the Vikings in Relation to Egil Johansson's Discovery of the Route to Universal Literacy in Sweden in the 17th Century
Ian Winchester

197-217 Reading Cultures, Christianization, and Secularization: Universalism and Particularism in the Swedish History of Literacy
Daniel Lindmark

219-240 Living the Transition – The Great Mortality Change Through the Lives of the Country Doctors
Anna Lundberg

241-259 Different Sources, Different Answers: Aspects on Women's Work in Sundsvall, Sweden, 1860-1893
Lotta Vikström

261-280 Funeral Processions, Street Urchins, Education, and Surveillance
Bengt Sandin

281-296 In a Class of Their Own? Swedish Women School Teachers and the Fertility Transition in the Late Nineteenth Century
Alison Mackinnon

297-312 Transformation of Patriarchal Regimes: Literacy and Schooling
Pavla Miller

313-335 How did Illiterates Fare as Literacy Became Almost Universal? Evidence from Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Century Liverpool
David Mitch

337-340 Individual Literacy in Commonplace Books
Kenneth Lockridge

341-357 Literacy Literacy
David Vincent

359-361 CONTRIBUTORS

Volume 34, Number 4, 2003

ARTICLES

363-381 Some Reflections on Contemporary Canadian Catholic Education
Mario O. D'Souza

383-420 Cultural Responsiveness of School Curriculum and Students' Failure in Turkey
Ismet Şahin

421-447 Racial Identity Theory and Peace Education: Tools For the Teacher in All of Us
Chalmer E. Thompson

449-466 Eight Pedagogical Preambles on Dolly the Sheep
David W. Jardine

CRITICAL NOTICE

467-472 When Will Comparative Educators Learn to Talk
Samuel Mitchell

BOOK REVIEW

473-475 Catholic Schools: Mission, Markets, and Morality, By Gerald Grace.
Reviewed by: J. Kent Donlevy

477-478 CONTRIBUTORS

479-481 KEYWORD INDEX

483-487 CONTENTS, VOLUME 34